

Have you experienced homelessness
and want to share your story?

Get published in Parity Magazine!

We're looking for written pieces and artwork focused on the theme of preventing youth homelessness to publish in the October 2019 edition of Parity. We especially want the voices of people that have experienced youth homelessness themselves to be at the centre of the edition.

What could I write about?

- What does preventing and ending youth homelessness look like to you?
- What would have prevented your homeless experience? Or What ended your homeless experience and what can we learn from that?
- How do we prevent youth homelessness from happening in the first place?
- What are important things to consider for different groups of people, such as Indigenous, LGBTQ2S+, racialized, parenting, newcomer, and rural youth, or young women, and youth with mental health needs?

Why should I submit?

- Share your story! It matters!
- Get published in an international publication!
- Raise awareness about preventing and ending youth homelessness!
- Your thoughts on youth homelessness prevention help shape advocacy, policy and programming!

Interested? Email, text or call Jayne Malenfant at:

jayne.malenfant@mail.mcgill.ca | 705-957-0056

What happens next?

Jayne will follow up with you to talk about next steps for getting your article or artwork in the magazine. If you need help to edit, or get feedback on your piece, we're happy to help and find ways to support you to make your piece the best it can be!