

American Orthopsychiatric Association CE Registration Form

We have made arrangements for the awarding of CE and CME credit for reading selected articles published in our journal. Articles designated for CE/CME credit are identified by the CE/CME logo in the journal's table of contents. To obtain credit, please send a completed copy of this form to Dr. Larry Smyth of the Red Toad Road Company, who manages the awarding of CE/CME credit for the association. There will be no charge for such credit for Ortho members. In order to keep the costs down and the free CE credit offer in force, please contact the RTR Company by surface mail or by email rather than by phone.

Participant Information (Please photocopy this form, do not tear from journal – copies can also be downloaded from our website www.amerortho.org)

Accreditation Information

Psychologists. The accredited American Journal of Orthopsychiatry (AJO) article/section has been jointly sponsored by the RTR Company and the American Orthopsychiatric Association (AOA). The RTR Company is approved by the American Psychological Association to sponsor continuing professional education for psychologists and maintains responsibility for the accredited AJO article/section. Most state licensing authorities for psychologists, social workers, marriage & family therapists, and mental health counselors accept CE activities accredited by APA approved sponsors. The article/section is accredited for one year following its publication date in AJO.

Physicians. The accredited AJO article/section has been planned and implemented in accordance with the Essential Areas and Policies of the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) through the joint sponsorship of AOA and RTR. AOA is accredited by the ACCME to provide continuing medical education for physicians. The release date for the accredited AJO article/section is the date of its publication in AJO. The expiration date is one year after its publication date in AJO.

CE Procedures

1. Obtain an issue of AJO and read an accredited AJO article or accredited AJO section.
2. Complete this registration form and mail it along with your payment (if applicable) to RTR.
3. You will be mailed or emailed a test and a training objectives rating form within two weeks of RTR receiving your CE registration form.
4. Complete the test and the training objectives rating form and mail them back to RTR within one year of the AJO publication date.
5. RTR will send you a certificate of completion within two weeks of receiving your passing test. A score of 75% or better correct on the objective test is considered passing. If you fail, you will be given feedback and the opportunity to take the test again.
